

Romanus Wolter's Introduction

I am honored to introduce Romanus Wolter, “The Kick Start Guy”. He provides practical action steps that close the gap between goals and success.

Romanus reaches over 2.4 million entrepreneurs a month as Entrepreneur Magazine's Success Coach Columnist, radio host and consultant -- there is no stopping him!

His book ‘Kick Start Your Dream Business’ is a culmination of 16 years of experience helping artists, authors, small business owners, consultants, inventors, and more turn their ideas into realities. He is sharing the contents of his new book, “Kick Start Your Success: Four Powerful Steps to Achieve What You Want in Your Life, Career and Business” today.

Romanus leaves audiences energized and with enough creative ideas to last two lifetimes. His programs are tied together with “passion and action!”

Romanus' observations on what people must do to succeed have been reported in respected publications such as Entrepreneur Magazine, Business Week, Bloomberg Television, and national television and radio programs.

Please help me welcome the man who does not view the “cup as half empty or half full—it is always overflowing.”

The person who can help “Kick Start Your Success”
